SABIN POLIO CLINIC MAY 6TH

The new Sabin oral polio vaccine is to be made available to the children of Wilmington, in a clinic planned for the Wildwood School, May 6th., between the hours of 9 am and noon.

The Wilmington Board of Health, Monday night strongly urged, in a public statement, that parents of all children, first grade or under in age, down to the age of three months, avail themselves of the opportunity offered by the clinic, which is to administer the Type I vaccine. A second clinic is planned for June 3rd., in which the Type III vaccine will be administered.

Regardless of whether or not a child is protected by the Salk vaccine, the Sabin oral vaccine should be used, the Health Board stated.

The new vaccine, which is not injected, as was the Salk vaccine, is a permanent safeguard against polio, and does not have to be renewed with 'boosters' as did the older type.

It is tasteless, and two drops constitute a dose. The vaccine may be taken in water or on a lump of sugar.

The vaccine is in three types against the three types of polio.

The majority of the polio cases is of the Type I variety with Type III following, and only about 5% of the people who are afflicted with polio have Type II cases. Dr. Howard Richter of Columbia Street told the board, Monday night.

Dr. Richter was present for the discussion, as were Miss Ann Butters, Public Health Nurse, and Mrs. Edward Martin and Mrs. Sylvia Levine, School Nurses. Dr. Gerald A. Fagan, Public Health Medical Officer, was not able to be present because of an emergency call.

Under the program set up by the state the Type II vaccine would be distributed next year in January or February.

Dr. Richter told the board that the new vaccine has been thoroughly tested, that it is nearly 100% effective, and that one Pharmaceutical House has the vaccine available for sale. It was through Dr. Richter that the Health Board learned of the supply, and has subsequently ordered the supply.

The vaccine is sold in frozen bottles of 100 doses each, and cannot be returned, once received.

2026 Children

There are 2026 children in Wilmington eligible to receive the vaccine in the program set up by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, Miss Anne Butters, Public Health Nurse, told the Board.

Sufficient vaccine has been ordered so that every child will be able to be protected.

A COUPLE OF SHIRTS ROOKIE COPS SOLVE CRIME WAVE

Two of the more recent appointees to the Wilmington Police Department are credited by Chief of Police Paul J. Lynch with having produced important leads that led to the solving of a crime wave that has reigned over eastern Mass. for several months.

Police of four different departments were provided the answers to over 30 robberies and larcenies, and four men are now behind bars because Officers Jay Palmer and Tommy Brennan were curious about two shirts in the back seat of a car.

The two cops stopped a suspicious car, at 2 am on Feb.

2nd. A 17 year old Tewksbury youth could give no good reason for being out at that time of the morning.

In the back seat of the car were two new shirts.

They are Christmas gifts, the youth told the police - 'My girl gave them to me late'.

Unsatisfied, Brennan and Palmer checked with the girl friend. She hadn't seen the Tewksbury youth (Robert Hutton) for months.

But, nosing through lists of stolen materials, the two men found out that some shirts had been stolen recently in Waltham.

RECOMMEND COMMITTEE TO STUDY

MUNICIPAL LIGHT COMPANY

A committee report, read at a Board of Directors meeting of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, April 10th., recommended that the Chamber form a committee to study the feasibility of the Town having its own Municipal Light Department.

The committee report, which was read by president Sumberg of the Chamber, pointed at the large industrial growth of Wilmington in the past few years, and felt that considerable attention should be given to a study.

Robert Clarke reported that the Middlesex County Bank had made a generous offer, and it was unanimously voted to locate the Chamber officers in their office building.

A general meeting of the Chamber is to be held on May 8th., at 7:45 pm at the J W Greer Co. cafeteria.

WINNER OF 6 STATE & REGIONAL AWARDS

THE SNEAKER IN THE WARRANT

Wilmington voters who attend the Special Town meeting on April 30 would do well to study carefully Article Seven. It's a sneaker.

This article would do away with the effect-iveness of Civil Service, in the Wilmington Fire Department. It would make appointments subject to the whimsies of the town politicians.

The pols might tell the voter that it is needed because there are no names on the Civil Service Register, for appointment to the Wil-mington Department.

The answer is that the Wilmington pols have called for only one examination for Private, in the past three or four years.

The examinations don't cost the town a cent. All we have to do is ask for them.

Those Call Firemen who would like to be ap-pointed to the Fire Department cannot, at pre-sent, for they have had no opportunity to take the exams.

Call Firemen get 10 extra points, in a Civil Service exam - seven for practical experience and three for being a Call Firemen. 10 points is more than ample, in any Civil Service exam, and the voters know that fair methods have been employed to get men who qualify both mentally and physically.

If Article Seven is accepted by the town the fair methods of Civil Service will be negated.

People will then be appointed to the Fire Department without passing the mental exam, and with a local physician, instead of the State physical exam.

It's sneaky, - and the answer to any pol's prayer.

THE YANKEE TRADER

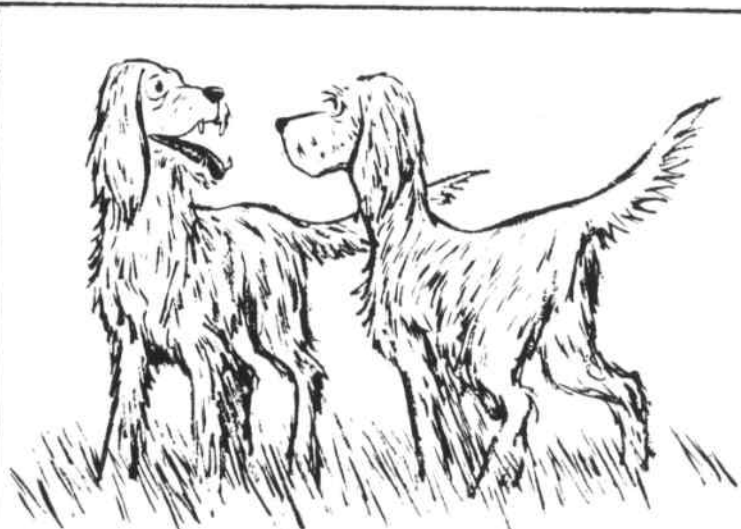

We can't recall when we gave the name of The Yankee Trader to Bob Evans, but it was some years ago, before he became a member of the Wilmington Planning Board.

The name may be appropriate for Mr Evans in private life, but Wilmington people should not jump to the conclusion that Mr Evans is willing to "make a swap" when principals are at stake, as an official of the town.

When Bob believes in a point he will stick to it forever.

Other officials who have argued with him for hours, and have finally believed they have con-vinced him, have learned this point when Bob comes up with a "Yes, But - " and starts all over again.

It would be an interesting year for some of our officials.

If your boss can't shoot any straighter than mine, I'd suggest you get some health and accident insurance at

SLIP-UP

They showed their teeth, those men of steel,

Who would ignore their country's real,

But then they slipped, each polished heel,

On J.F.K.'s banana peel.

THE NORTH SCHOOL JANITOR

It has been interesting to watch our school system grow, in the past dozen years, not only grow in scope of academics and sports, but in the physical plant as well.

Wilmington is practically committed to a "School a Year Program", and as the physical plant grows so does the staff of people who have to serve it, the custodians and janitors.

Right now the custodians are watching the new North Intermediate School.

Someone will be appointed to be the custo-dian there, and they are wondering which of the school custodians is to be rewarded. Inter-est is keen and for the town worth while, as it gives the school custodians an incentive to-wards doing their very best, in order to de-serve promotion.

A BOOST FOR INTELLIGENT CITIZENSHIP

We pause to note that the League of Women Voters, not quite a year old in Wilmington, is in the middle of a financial drive.

It sounds like a tremendous project, but the ladies are asking for a small sum - $280.

In the past year they have conducted many open forums, discussing town and state subjects and some people of Wilmington, at least, are better informed.

The League of Women Voters, as it has been conducted in Wilmington, has been a boost for more intelligent citizenship. The ladies de-serve support.

THE BELLS WILL RING TODAY

By proclamation of the Board of Selectmen, the bells of Wilmington are to ring today, at the hour of noon, in observance of our great Massachusetts holiday.

The Wilmington Post 136 of the American Le-gion is requesting that all of our people, of this town, recite the American's Creed at that time. We reproduce it for the benefit of the Legionaires, and of the people of Wilmington.

Holiday Cordial Cookery

Baked ham gourmet

10-12 pound precooked Ham
1/2 cup brown sugar
3 tablespoons Hiram Walker's Peach, Apricot or Cherry Brandy
2/3 cup Hiram Walker's Cherry Brandy (or other flavor) to which 2 table-spoons dry mustard has been added.
Whole Cloves

Remove the wrapping from a 10-12 pound precooked ham; do not remove rind. Wrap the ham in glassine paper and place it fat side up on a rack in an open roasting pan. Roast the ham in a slow oven (300 degrees) allowing 18 minutes per pound of ham. An hour before the ham is done, remove the glassine paper, trim off the rind, score the fat crisscross fashion, and stud the fatty surface with whole cloves. Sprinkle the ham with brown sugar, using about 1/2 cup, and over the sugar sprinkle 3/4 tablespoons of Hiram Walker's Cherry Flavored Brandy. Pour into the pan 1/2 cup Cherry Brandy to which 2 tablespoons dry mustard has been added, return the pan to the oven, and continue roasting for the last hour, basting frequently with the syrup in the pan. When the ham is ready, serve it hot.

TOWN NOTES

Blooming in the Snow

The world woke up, Monday am to find the ground covered with snow - at least the World of Wilmington.

Our little hyacinths were blooming bravely, but frigidly just through the white mantle.

In fact it has been a cold week, with snow spitting out of the leaden skies nearly every night, - but Monday am's storm was the only one to amount to anything - and that disappeared by noon.

Golden Peaspoon

Have you planted your peas yet? If you have you might be the first to have enough for a dinner, come about the 17th of June - and the Town Crier annually awards an entirely my-thical Gold Plated Peaspoon to the first (non-commercial) gardener to do this, each year.

Brown Trout

No fair fishing in the brooks or rivers, until a week from Saturday. The lake and the ponds will be open next Satur-day.

We understand that some good size brown trout are to be planted in the Ipswich, this year.

Bird Watchers

We belong to that clan of people who like to watch birds but the lazy way. A bird hike is just too too, but if the feathered monster will come to our back yard we'll give a glance.

A couple of weeks ago we men-tioned that we hadn't seen a bluebird for years, so we have kept our weather eye peeled in the back yard weed patch, just to see. Every trill that might prove to be a bluebird has turned out to be a songsparrow. Has anyone seen bluebirds this spring?

Sam Bertwell, down on Chest-nut Street is another fellow who believes in letting the birds come to him, according to report.

At least a Wood Duck fell from the chimney, emerged defiant into the living room, and fi-nally made its escape, after Sam and his Mrs. shooed and shooed and shooed.

Late Late Filer?

The Town Crier office had a visitor at 8:30 pm Monday.

He was a newcomer, not only to Wilmington, but to Massachu-setts.

He wanted to know where he could get State Income Tax forms.

Sniffing

It seems that about 25% of the town is laid low, either with the sniffles or the mea-sles (and of course it hap-pens during school vacation).

Among those with the sniffles is Friar Luck, of St Thomas, otherwise known as Father Mackin.

Wakes 'Em Up, Too

We note a push-bell has been installed on the counter of the Police Station.

Chief of Police Paul Lynch says it is to call the Desk Man, if he doesn't happen to be in the office.

Moose and Friends

The sports team to watch, this year, in our High School, will be the Track Team, we think.

Moose' Fairfield, our Star Center in the football team and the Second Highest (?) Center in basketball, will be the star of the discus throw-ing and Shot-put Club, accord-ing to our observations.

His old pals Dickie Allard and Jackie Bowen are good prospects in the Broad Jump classification.

Jackie is also good in the Hundred Yard Dash, with Bob O'Leary and Frank perdicaro right up beside him.

Chelton Osbers, a boy who has been in town about a year, (and who won in his class, in the Booster Boxing Tournament) is a good prospect for the High Jump part of the team.

Maybe we'll have something to look up to this year, more than some half-frozen young-sters running around the field in gym suits.

PLANNING BOARD MUST SIGN SAYS TOWN COUNSEL

The Wilmington Planning Board is required to sign a plan which comes before them, and which does not constitute a subdivision of land, Town Counsel Philip Buzzell has ruled, providing of course that other provisions of the law are met.

Buzzell was ruling in the case of a plan submitted by Atty. Timothy Kane, of Middlesex Avenue, who submitted, last week, a plan of the land belonging to him, and of additional land also claimed by St. Thomas Church, adjacent to his home.

The Planning Board refused to sign until they had a ruling from the Town Counsel because the plan did not agree with town plans for the area.

About 300 Wilmington Campfire Girls attended their annual banquet, last Friday, in the High School, with Foster Balsar being the Master of Ceremonies.

LETTERS

Dear Mr. Neilson:

We, of the Middlesex County Chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America are most anxious to locate any victims of Muscle Disease in your area. We fear there are many people that need us and do not even know of our existence.

From time to time we would appreciate it if you would print any informative material that we might send to you. We are a small group, part of a large number of chapters, but there is much we could do to help allay the fears of these unfortunate people.

Thanking you in advance I am,
Mrs. Joseph Mahoney
Vice President

Dear Larz,

I feel the time has come for me to make a few comments regarding the Water Board's recent decision to lay a water line through the fields at the tax-payers expense rather than along Butters Row under betterments. The implication is that Butters Row residents don't want town water. However, most are not opposing water but do object to the high cost involved.

Recently a new petition was brought to our house to be signed. The man who brought it claimed to have talked to the Water Board and as a result he got up this petition to take around our street for signatures. The petition consisted of two paragraphs. First, it asked that the Water Board not put the line through the fields. Secondly, it verified that those who sign agree that they are now willing to pay $3.00 per foot (as asked in the last town meeting and voted down by the people.)

I did not sign this petition because $3.00 per foot is too high for the limited benefits we shall receive. Over ninety percent of the water-flow in the 12-inch main which would be installed in front of our house would be for the use and benefit of industry and the town in general. I do believe we should pay a fair share. Water Board members, who no doubt got their own water lines before betterments, should realize that a more realistic attitude is possible. Then, a fairer proportion might be voted favorable.

A small minority is helpless at such a time as this. To paraphrase an old saying, 'You can't fight Town Hall and win' However, we can state our case.

LIBRARY NEWS

Interest in arguing the pros and cons of library expansion grows as the special town meeting of April 30 draws nearer. During National Library Week the libraries of North Reading, Lynnfield, Lexington, and Hamilton were seen by some of the trustees and friends who were particularly interested in what Wilmington should do.

The Weeks Memorial Library in North Reading occupies the first floor of a historic tavern. The acquisition of the building and remodeling cost about $50,000 a few years ago. This year the town appropriated further funds for making a children's room in the basement, and further expansion into the second floor area is being thought of for the future. No brand new construction is being considered at this time.

Lynnfield's library is housed in what was a wooden school building, to which a $20,000 was made a few years ago. The town is now looking into the possibility of a new building and a town appointed Library Facilities Committee has made extensive studies.

Lexington's library is so outstanding that the visitors almost had the feeling of stepping into another world. It is a place well worth looking at to find out what library service can be and do for a community.

Hamilton's 1961 $90,000 library was built after being proposed for the third time at town meeting. The town of 5,500 population differs from Wilmington in having many wealthy estates, but has also had much recent new building. The building was done in response to the needs of the newer residents.

Among those who visited these libraries were friends from the Women's Club and the League of Women Voters.

Attending the First Governor's Conference on Libraries were the Librarian, Mrs. Chipman, and Mrs. Neilson of the Library Board. The keynote address was given by Dr. Franklin K. Patterson, director of the Lincoln Filene Center for Citizenship and Public Affairs at Tufts University. His topic was 'Libraries in the Emergence of an Effective Citizenry.'

Polio Clinic

Tried for 100%

The board of Health, considering this to be the most important advance in years, in protection against polio, attempted to prior enough vaccine from a pharmaceutical supply house to protect all residents of Wilmington, regardless of age.

At first assured that they would receive the vaccine, the board was told, Wednesday morning, that it will be impossible.

The vaccine for the children, to be distributed May 6th will be supplied by the State Board of Public Health.

more, and Hutton finally admitted getting the shirts from a man named John Bruno. Bruno, he said, lived in Waltham.

Brennan

Brennan and Palmer went to Waltham, and with the Waltham police picked up Bruno. As a result they learned that Bruno Hutton and another man named Richard Burke had broken into the Wilmington Radio & TV Store, on January 14th., and stolen about $9000 worth of TV equipment.

Palmer

While this was going on Hutton and Burke were tried, in Boston courts, and found guilty of other robberies. On Feb 15th they, together with Burke, were in Woburn Court. Sgt. George Sheppard of the Wilmington Police was doing the prosecuting.

Burke, in his testimony, implicated a man named Mento - Peter Mento of Braintree. Brennan and Palmer decided to go to Braintree for more investigation. They, together with the police there, got a search warrant and searched Mento's home.

Nothing was found, but the police were certain that this was the home to which the loot from the Wilmington TV robbery was taken.

Palmer and Brennan carried on in their search. They got a warrant to have the home of Bruno searched, in Boston.

This time they hit pay dirt, for in the Bruno home was a radio which Danny Cosman had listed as being in his shop the night before the robbery. Brennan and Palmer also found a 19 inch TV set which Cosman, the owner of the TV store, identified as his.

On February 21st the two rookies appeared in Woburn Court, and asked for a warrant for the arrest of Mento for the receiving of stolen property, and the entire case then went to the Grand Jury.

All four men were indicted, and last Friday all four men were found guilty, in the Cambridge Superior Court.

Over 30 robberies were solved with their convictions.

Richard Burke received five separate sentences of 18 months each, to be served concurrently, in the Concord Reformatory.

Robert Hutton was sentenced to five years in the Concord Reformatory.

Peter Mento received 18 months in the House of Correction, and John Bruno got 2 1/2 years in the same institution.

In passing sentence Judge Eugene Hudson invoked a seldom used law.

Bruno and Mento were told by His Honor that they had to make restitution of $3200, and within 90 days, or their sentences would be doubled.

At the conclusion of the trial District Attorney John Droney told Chief of Police Lynch:

'Those men (Palmer and Brennan) are the answer to a Chief's prayer!'
